John had dinner the other night with his only sibling's husband's mother-in-law's only daughter-in-law. Who was this person? - His Wife

Insert +, -, X, and/or parentheses between the numbers to find the total. 1 + 2 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 - 8 + 9 = 29

Of those numbers whose English representation in capital letters consists only of straight lines, only one number has a value equal to the number of straight line segments required to write it out. What number is this? - TWENTY NINE

A woman has incontrovertible proof in court that her husband was murdered by her sister. The judge declares, "This is the strangest case I've ever seen. Though it's a cut-and-dried case, this woman cannot be punished." Explain. - Siamese twins

and asks for a drink. The bartender pulls out a gun and points it at him. The man says, "Thank you," and walks out. Explain. - Hiccups

A man is driving his car. He turns on the radio, listens for five minutes, turns around, goes home, and shoots his wife. Explain. The radio program is one of those shows where they call up someone at random and ask them a question. The announcer states the name and town of the man's wife as the person he would call next. He does so, and a male voice answers. From this,

he gathered his wife was having an affair.

The music stops, and a woman dies. Explain. The woman is a tightrope walker in a circus. Her act consists of walking the rope blindfolded, accompanied by music, without a net. The conductor is supposed to stop the music when she reaches the end of the rope, signaling that it's safe to step off onto the platform. That day, the usual conductor was ill. The substitute stopped the music early.

If you put a coin in an empty bottle and insert a cork into the neck of the bottle, how could you remove the coin without taking the cork out or breaking the bottle? Push the cork into the bottle and shake the coin out.
